3 Related Work (17pgs)

THIS IS A CITATION[1]

The related work section will highly volatile, and will mostly depend on your kind of thesis. Talk with your supervisor in order to know how to write this part. Don't take the following bullet points as a certain truth.

- Most important part of the document. Might be divided in 2/3 subsections.
- Might be devised into related work and
- Should cite a wide range of references 30, search in google, google scholar, mendeley, IEEE explorer etc..
- Summarized table of solutions.

Citations should be mostly :

- magazine articles
- conferences / workshops
- books and technical reports

And make sure that your citations follow the following criteria:

- Conferences: name and year
- workshops: name of the workshop, name of the conference, location and year
- Magazines: volume, issue (if possible article pages), publisher.
- Books: title, publisher, ISBN, year

Websites should be added as footnotes ¹
